Frankfurt-Hahn AirportInsolvency administrator Dr Jan Markus Plathner invites bidders and interested parties to participate in the investor process

The insolvency administrator of the Frankfurt-Hahn Airport Group, lawyer Dr Jan Markus Plathner, has invited bidders and other interested parties to participate in the ongoing investor process. Due date for submitting bids is 9th March 2023, a closing is expected to take place by 26th March 2023, with the express reservation that the process may also be changed in terms of time and/or conditions.

Commenting on the decision, insolvency administrator Dr Jan Markus Plathner says: "In view of the refused approvals and the new expressions of interest, we would like to give potential interested parties the chance to participate the investor process. However, the focus remains on reaching a solution in a timely manner."

Flight operations at Frankfurt-Hahn Airport will continue in full as part of the insolvency proceedings. The 2023 summer flight schedule will include additional new European destinations that will be served non-stop from Frankfurt-Hahn.
