

General questions about parking

What is the difference between the various parking areas?

Parking areas P1 to P3 differ in their distance to the terminal. Parking area P1 is the parking garage directly in front of the terminal. The distance from P2 to the terminal is between approx. 150 m and 600 m. Parking area P3 is located between approx. 600 m and 800 m from the terminal. P2 and P3 are long-term parking areas and barriered open spaces. The "Terminal Kurzzeit" is a short-term parking area. Here, the first 10 minutes are free of charge.

Are there any height or length restrictions for the parking spaces?

Yes, but only the parking garage P1 has a height limit of 2.10 meters. There are no height or length restrictions on the other parking lots.

Are there special parking spaces for motorcycles?

No. You can use any parking space subject to charges with a motorcycle.

What are the parking fees?

On our website www.hahn-airport.de under the heading "Parking" you will find a parking fee overview as well as a map of the different parking lots.

Is there a minimum parking period?

No.

What is the maximum parking period?

The maximum parking duration is 6 weeks. If you exceed the parking time, section 4 of the parking regulations applies. If you would like to park longer, please send an email to: parken@hahn-airport.de.

Do I have to reserve a parking space?

No. Currently, online reservation is not possible. There are sufficient parking spaces available in parking areas P1 - P3. This ensures that you can use your desired parking space - even without a reservation.

Are the parking spaces open spaces or parking garages?

P1 is a parking garage. P2 and P3 are open spaces with barriers.

How far is the distance from the various parking lots to the terminal?

P1 parking garage and the "Terminal Kurzzeit" area are located directly in front of the terminal. The distance from P2 to the terminal is between approx. 150 m and 600 m. The P3 parking area is between approx. 600 m and 800 m from the terminal.

Are the parking lots guarded? How safe is parking at the airport?

No. The parking lots at Frankfurt-Hahn Airport are not guarded, but there have been only few incidents so far. However, we cannot rule them out in principle. According to the parking lot regulations, Flughafen Frankfurt-Hahn GmbH assumes no liability for parked vehicles and will not pay for any damages.

Is there a shuttle service?

No. The terminal can be reached from all parking areas within walking distance.

What address can I enter in my navigation system to get to the parking lot?

Please enter the following address: "Flughafen Frankfurt-Hahn" (alternatively, you can also enter the neighboring town "55483 Lautzenhausen"). Once you have reached the K2 district road, please follow this main road for about two more kilometers. You will automatically drive onto the airport ground. From there on, our electronic parking guidance system and signs will show you the way to the various parking areas.

Parking process, entry, exit, payment

What are the parking fees?

The current rates for the respective parking period apply. A price overview for the parking lots can be found on our website www.hahn-airport.de.

How do I enter and leave the parking lot? How, when and where to pay?

You take a parking ticket at the entrance barrier and keep it carefully. Please do not put it behind the windshield, otherwise it may not be read by our machines after the trip due to light exposure. You pay for this ticket in cash or by EC/credit card at one of our ticket machines after returning from your flight. The pay stations are located in the corresponding parking areas and in the terminal. You will be allowed to exit the parking lot with the ticket you have paid for.

I don't get a parking ticket at the entrance barrier and it doesn't open. Why?

The parking lot is probably completely full. The signal "OCCUPIED" ("BESETZT") appears on the electronic parking guidance system and the light signal at the entrance lights up red. Please drive to another parking lot.

What do I do if there are problems at the entrance?

If you have a problem, please press the intercom button on the column of the entry barrier only once. This button is marked with a small telephone receiver. You will be connected to the parking service. Our employees are there for you 24 hours 7 days a week. If someone does not contact you immediately, please be patient. Please do NOT press the intercom button again!

How and when is the payment made?

The parking fee is due for payment before leaving the parking lot. You pay the parking ticket after returning from your flight at one of our pay stations in cash or by EC/credit card. The pay stations are located in the corresponding parking areas and in the terminal. You will be allowed to exit the car park with the ticket you have paid for.

What do I do if I have problems while paying at the pay station?

If you have a problem, please press the intercom button on the pay station only once. This button is marked with a small telephone receiver. You will be connected to the parking service. Our employees are there for you 24 hours 7 days a week. If someone does not contact you immediately, please be patient. Please do NOT press the talk button again!

Will I receive a receipt for the parking fees I have paid?

At the pay station, you will be asked after payment if you need a receipt. To do so, simply press the displayed button and the receipt will be issued directly at the machine.

What do I do if there occur problems at the exit?

In case of problems, please press the intercom button on the exit barrier column only once. This button is marked with a small telephone receiver. You will be connected to the parking service. Our employees are there for you 24 hours 7 days a week. If someone does not contact you immediately, please be patient. Please do NOT press the intercom button again!
